

Agincourt Beachfront Apartments is the perfect holiday destination to discover Cairns and the Great Barrier Reef region. Conveniently located at Clifton Beach, these quiet beachfront apartments are within easy reach of Cairns city, Port Douglas and the Atherton Tableland.

The Tropical North Queensland setting in the heart of the Cairns Northern Beaches is sublime. The modern apartments are set in lush gardens with views through the coconut palms of the sandy beach, nearby islands and the blue Coral Sea. Agincourt Beachfront Apartments might be far from the crowds, but the award-winning resort is close to everything you need.

Shopping, tourist attractions, transport and restaurants are all nearby. Many guests return every year to experience the easy tropical lifestyle at Agincourt Beachfront Apartments.

location

Clifton Beach is in the heart of the Northern Beaches of Cairns, ideally situated between Palm Cove and Trinity Beach. It is close to the city and within easy reach of Port Douglas and the Atherton Tableland for day trips.

There is a stinger net (November-May), surf life guard patrols, free beach barbecue facilities with undercover seating and a children's playground, all a 5-minute walk from your accommodation at Agincourt Beachfront Apartments.

A 20-minute walk north along the sandy shore is all it takes to reach Palm Cove's cosmopolitan mix of cafes, restaurants, spas and boutiques. Public buses and taxis service the suburb, while most facilities and some tourist attractions are within walking distance. Getting to Agincourt Beachfront Apartments from Cairns Airport is an easy 20-minute drive.
